

VIDEO CHECKLIST

video production worksheet

- From the video the players know where they are and what the environment looks like.
- From the video the players understand the challenge they face.
- The video mentions props and situations that the players can take advantage of.
- From the video the players know which other people or creatures are involved.
- From the video the players will understand the urgency to act.
- From the video the players will know the title of the scene (yes/no)
(If the title of the scene is too revealing then do not put it in the video)

yes

no

